

Fairford Festival 2019 - Where in Space is Ernest?

Ernest is an Elephant, a very well travelled Elephant, a very well travelled and forgetful Elephant.

Having gained his astronaut licence, Ernest has boldly gone where no elephant has gone before- Ernest, has travelled into space! He managed to capture all of the planets on his camera, however, he has got them all mixed up and needs your help in identifying each of them.

Here's how you can help;

- Collect a form from 7a Coffee Shop (Mon- Fri) or download a copy from our website www.fairfordfestival.org.uk
- Forms will also be available in the space tent at Fairford Cricket Club across the Festival weekend
- Ernest's planet snaps will be in locations around Fairford town centre. Fill out the form, listing the location you found Ernest's picture and also the name of the planet
- Deliver your entry form in one of the Fairford Festival competition boxes at 7a Coffee Shop complete with your details. You can also return your forms to the space tent across the Festival weekend
- The competition closes Sunday 9th June 2019 at 2pm
- All correct forms will be collected and a winner will be announced on Sunday 9th June 2019 at 4pm in the main tent

Competition Rules

- Competition open to children aged 8 years and under
- One entry per child (forms can be found in 7a coffee shop (Mon- Fri) or online via our website www.fairfordfestival.org.uk or in the space tent during the Festival weekend
- All competition entries must be handed into 7a coffee shop or the children's tent at the Fairford Festival by 2pm, Sunday 9th June
- Please complete the form in BLOCK CAPITALS
